

FALL POETRY READING

OCTOBER 4
7-9PM
LIBRARY
READING ROOM

Portland poet Willa Schneberg is the author of five collections and her book In the Margins of the World won the Oregon Book Award in Poetry. Her work has appeared widely in literary journals and anthologies. In addition to her writing, she is a visual artist and licensed clinical social worker in private practice.

Toni Hanner is currently writing a series of poems about goldfish for the 2016 August Poetry Postcard Festival. She is a member of the Lane Literary Guild's Red Sofa Poets. In 2013, Hanner's book Gertrude: poems and other objects was a finalist for the Oregon Book Award.

Tim Shaner is the author of Picture X (Airlie Press, 2014). He has an MA in Creative Writing from Antioch University and a Ph.D. from SUNY-Buffalo's Poetics Program. From 2008-14 he curated A-New Poetry Series @ DIVA in Eugene. He teaches writing at Lane Community College.

WILLA SCHNEBERG
TONI HANNER
TIM SHANER

Hosted by Springfield Public Library
thanks to the support of the Springfield Public Library Foundation.

Springfield Public Library . 225 5th Street (inside City Hall) . Springfield, OR 541-726-3766 . wheremindsgrow.org